MRO Australasia returns to Brisbane in 2023 and will again gather together industry leaders for 2 days of knowledge sharing and networking for those involved in the MRO sector in the region. This event will be the leading destination for suppliers to meet key decision makers and for buyers to learn, test and purchase new MRO solutions and services. Attendees will get hands-on with the latest technologies, tools and resources through the showcase exhibition and translate the practical knowledge of the conference into real life solutions and savings for their organizations. By taking a sponsorship package or branding opportunity you are perfectly positioned to showcase your products and services to senior level attendees in an intimate setting. You'll be able to make key connections across the 2 days in Brisbane at the same time as enhancing your brand awareness.
